

CARBON COUNTY LIBRARY SYSTEM

CURRENT MISSION STATEMENT:

The mission of the Carbon County Library System is to engage, enrich and empower. (April 2008)

PREVIOUS MISSION STATEMENTS:

The mission of the Carbon County Library System is to provide the public:

- welcoming places for intellectual stimulation
- personal enjoyment
- expansion of horizons through free and easily accessible information and services
- cultural center throughout the county. (December 2006)

The Carbon County Library System provides the public welcoming places for intellectual stimulation, personal enjoyment and expansion of horizons through free and easily accessible information and services. (Board approved 1/16/2007 – not 2007, maybe 2006?)

The mission of the Carbon County Library System is to provide current materials for all ages and interests, to be an access for information, and to stimulate reading and learning in all people, especially the young. (Revised 2/00, reviewed 2/01, 2/02, 1/03, reaffirmed 2/04)

The mission of the Carbon County Library System is to provide current materials for all ages and interests, to be an access for information, and to stimulate reading and learning in young people. (April 21, 1998)

A key component in the cultural, educational and recreational life of south central Wyoming, the Carbon County Library System exists to serve the residents of Carbon County in their quest for lifelong learning and to provide access to information to all the residents of Carbon County. (August 1996)

The mission of the Library System is to assist Carbon County patrons by providing materials to meet their recreational interests and by providing access to information that meets their immediate or long range needs. (October 1995)