The library catalog and databases are still available on line at carbonlibraries.org

Library of the Future

During Carbon County Library System's Summer Reading Program there was a contest for Carbon County teens. The teens were encouraged to create their idea of what their library would be like in the year 2050. They could use any medium to convey their thoughts: painting, drawing, telling, singing, models, videos, etc. After being judge, the first place winner, Vanessa J. Clark, received $100.00 gift certificate to the Carbon County business of her choice. The second place winner, Hanna Mika, received $50.00 gift certificate to the Carbon County business of her choice. The third place winner, Cody Kanniard, received an MP4 player. All other contestants received a candy bar.

Technology S.O.S.

Not such a scary thing with the help of Carbon County Library System's Technology SOS program. We are here to help answer your specific problems with MS Word, digital cameras, other software, and other types of technology.

Just call 307-328-2689 to register for one of our class times at the Rawlins Library and you will receive individualized help.
